

WATER WITCH

Dedication Ritual

by Annwyn Avalon

GETTING STARTED

You Will Need

- Sacred Vessel
- Rose Petals
- Salt
- Water from a River, Spring or Ocean (Be sure this is a clean water source with drinkable water)

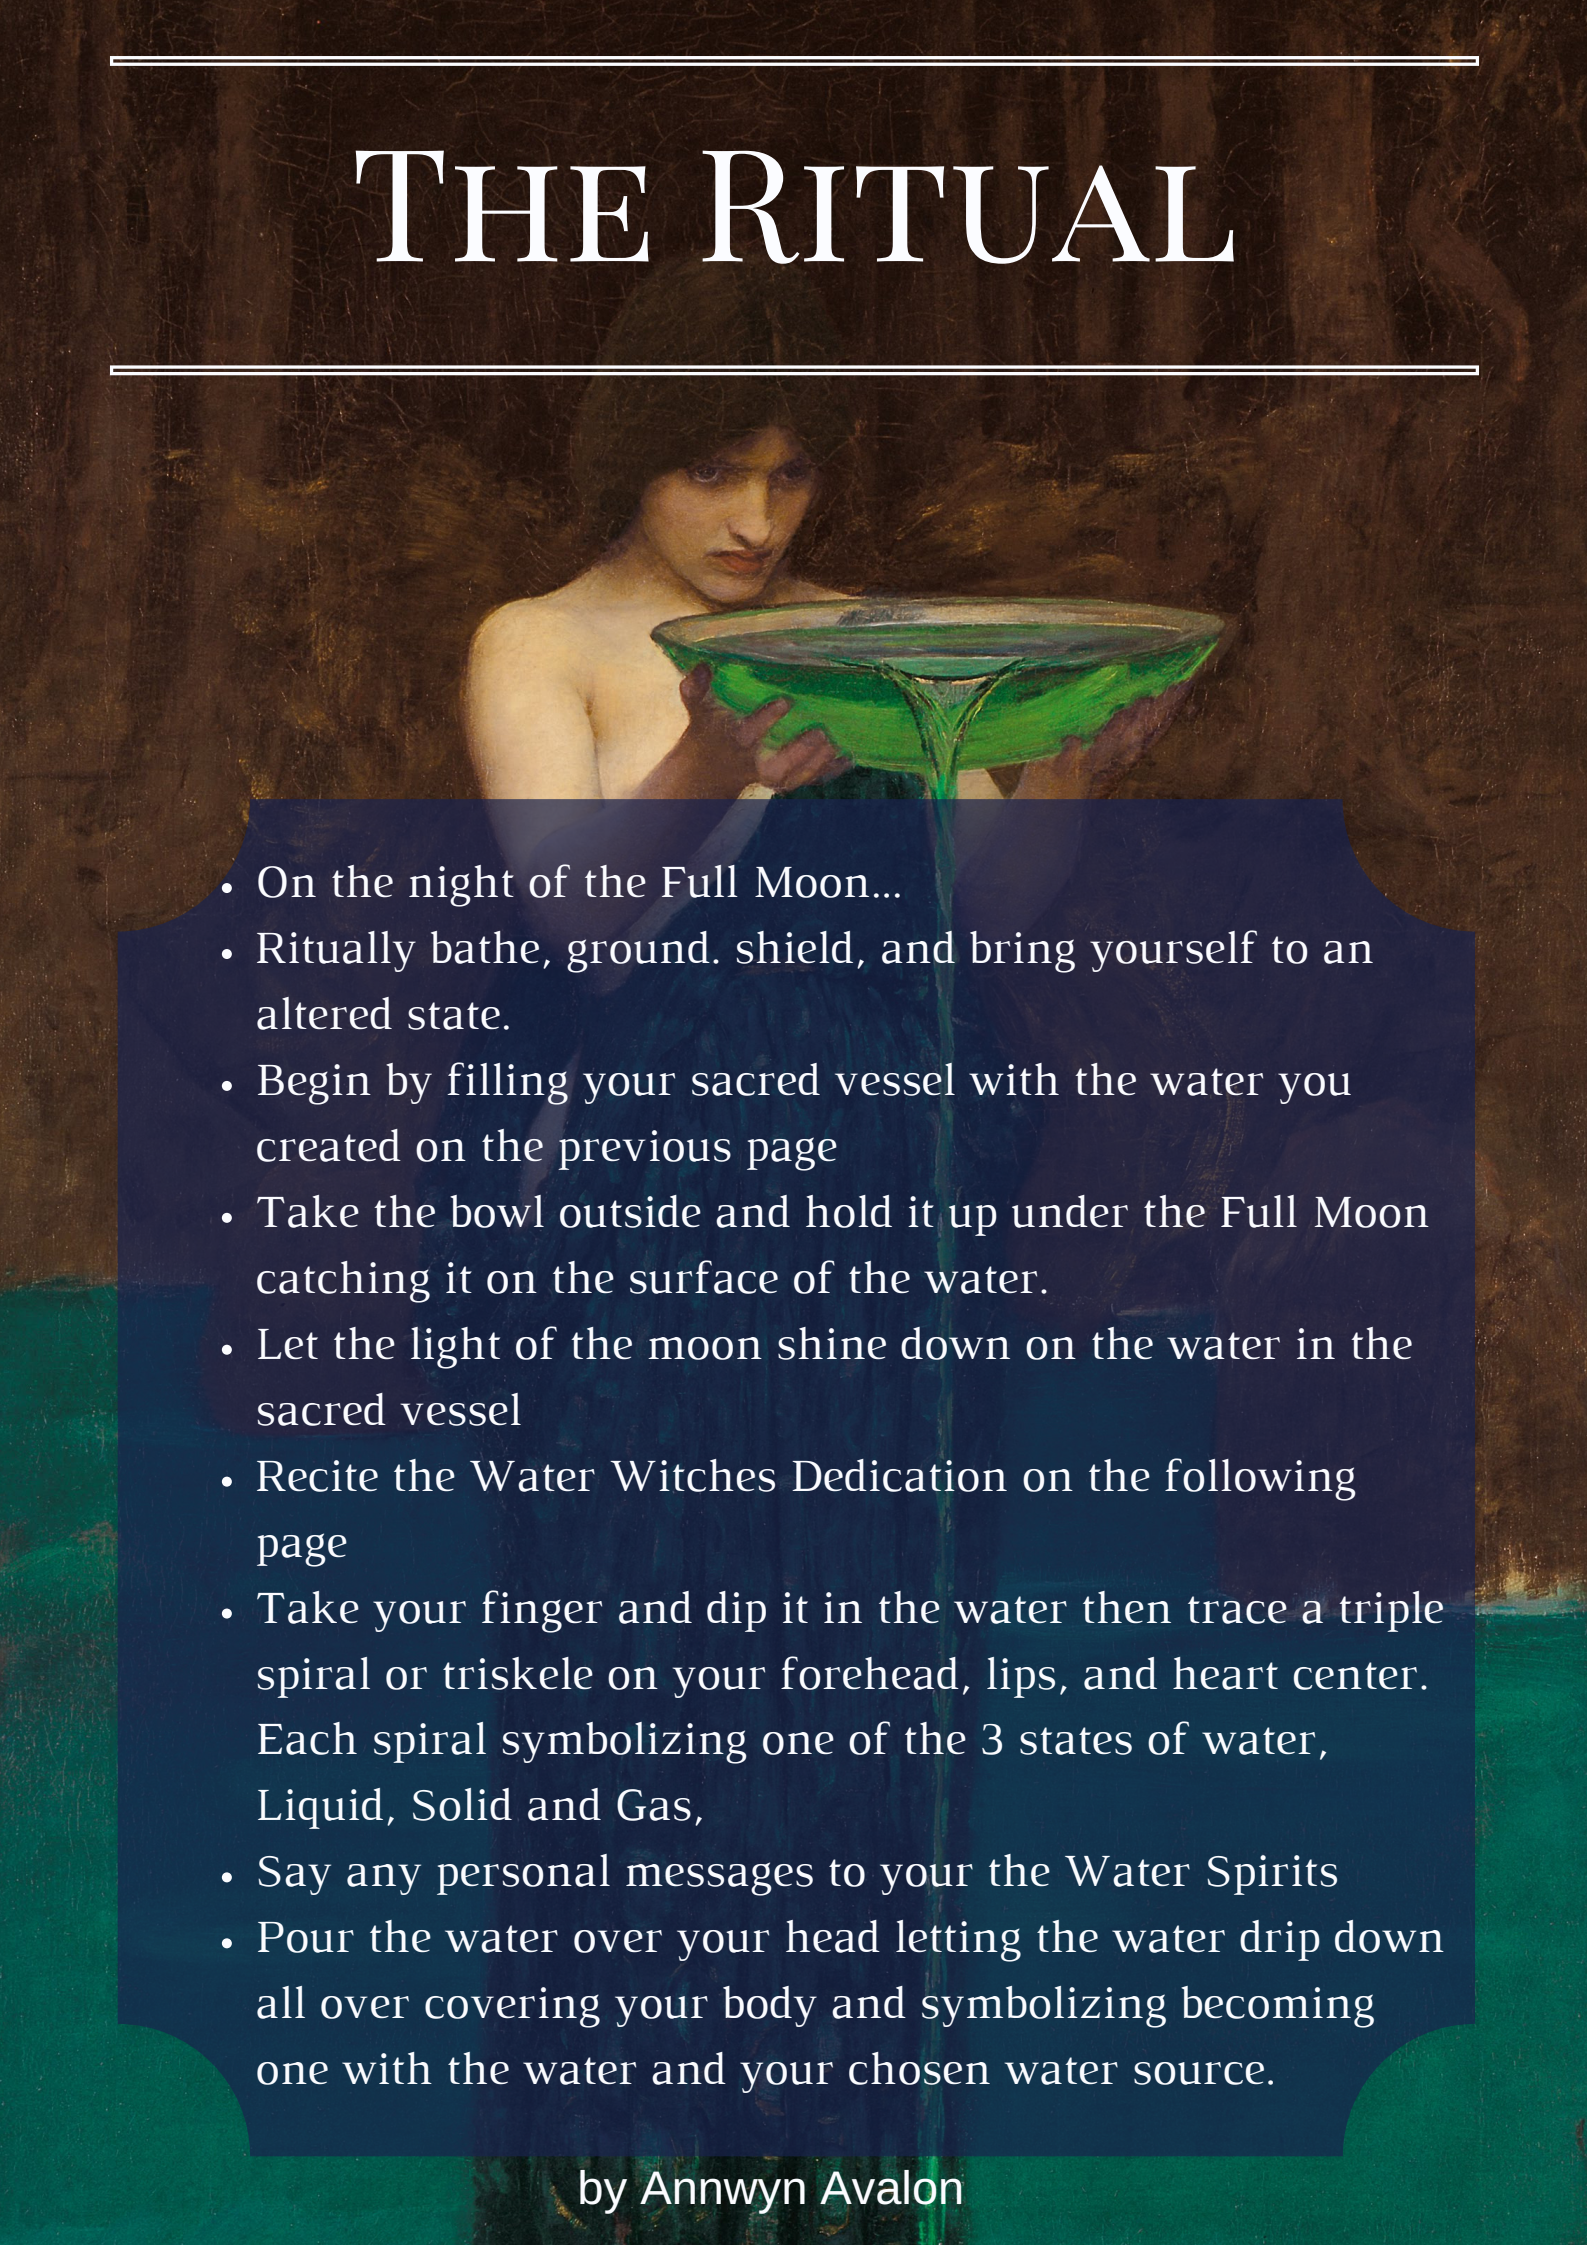

PREPARING YOUR WATER

- First cleanse your vessel spiritually and mundanely.
- Next take the water from your water source and place it in the vessel.
- Then take a pinch of salt and sprinkle it in the water and say "With this salt I cleanse you of all impurities and make you Holy
- Then take the Rose petals and sprinkle a few in the water and say "With these Rose petals I bless you and make you sacred.
- Now hold your hands over the water and visualize white light shining down from the heavens and into the water.

THE RITUAL

- On the night of the Full Moon...
 - Ritually bathe, ground, shield, and bring yourself to an altered state.
 - Begin by filling your sacred vessel with the water you created on the previous page
 - Take the bowl outside and hold it up under the Full Moon catching it on the surface of the water.
 - Let the light of the moon shine down on the water in the sacred vessel
 - Recite the Water Witches Dedication on the following page
 - Take your finger and dip it in the water then trace a triple spiral or triskele on your forehead, lips, and heart center. Each spiral symbolizing one of the 3 states of water, Liquid, Solid and Gas,
 - Say any personal messages to your the Water Spirits
 - Pour the water over your head letting the water drip down all over covering your body and symbolizing becoming one with the water and your chosen water source.

WATER WITCH DEDICATION

My hair mingles with the salty waters
And my body becomes the sacred springs
When the moon comes over head
Clear visions from the waters are lead

I dedicate myself to the waters
Both fresh and salty sea
I dedicate myself to the moon
In all her many phases
Water pulses through my veins
And my body ebbs and flows with the tide
I dedicate myself as a Sacred Vessel
Dipping, filling and nourishing this sacred well

I dedicate myself to honoring the waters
Keeping her sacred and clean
I dedicate myself to the moon
Keeping mysteries unseen
I dedicate myself to the Sacred Well and Ocean
Keeping myself in balance while still flowing in motion

I dedicate myself on this day
To water in all of her forms
To bless the waters, heal the oceans and honor the spirits that dwell within.

So Mote It BE!
